My brothers and sisters and I came out as caterpillars. We started eating leaves and flowers. We also ate vegetables like cabbage and lettuce. This is the most dangerous part of our lives. We have many enemies. Birds and lizards kill us.

Farmers think we are spoiling their vegetables. They spray us with chemicals and kill many of us. I did not die. I changed into a pupa. Many changes take place in me. After some time, I changed into a beautiful butterfly.

I still have some enemies. Some bad children and farmers want to kill me. They do not want me to eat. But if I do not eat, I will die. Please, don't kill us. We are very useful. We make people happy.
